Wearing a Bridallure Original gown of organza, Miss Alice Catherine Navarro came to the altar of the Nativity Catholic Church at 11 o'clock on Saturday, Aug. 25, on the arm of her uncle, Joseph Fernandez, to plight her marriage promises with Vance Ryan Tracy. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Consuelo Navarro, 1564 W. 219th St., and the late Joseph Navarro. Mrs. Mildred Tracy of Los Angeles is the mother of the bridegroom.

The bridal gown was detailed with a boat neckline, outlined with pearl embroidered lace appliques, and long pointed sleeves. Lace appliques decorated the front of the bouffant skirt which was caught in three tiers in the back. A pearl tiara held her illusion veil and she carried orchids and valley lilies.

Miss Anna Gianunzio was honor attendant and bridesmaids were Barbara Eyster, Gloria Munoz, Tamra Heinz. All wore blue nylon and carried white chrysanthemums.

Teri Sooter, in pale blue nylon, was flower girl and was escorted by Mark Belles. Mike Sooter was ring bearer.

Guy Tracy stood as best man and the 200 guests were seated by Dan Kemp, Louis Lisoni and Fred Breen.

Ray Negrette played the wedding marches and Rev. D.

O'Toole conducted the wedding.

A reception was held in Nativity Annex and 40 relatives and close friends were entertained at the bride's home. Mrs. Betty Lisoni registered the guests.

The newlyweds are on a trip to northern California. After Sept. 10 their address will be 6920 1/2 La Cienega, Inglewood.

Ann Landers

nothing very interesting is going to happen to you—ever.

Dear Ann Landers: The letter from the woman who was very angry because the recipe she got from her friend flopped reminded me of a similar trick a friend played on me. I was shocked to think an adult could be so petty.

This friend had excellent taste in clothes. She also had a lot of time for shopping. Naturally a person who makes a career of shopping is bound to find some lovely things.

I especially admired her winter coat. It had a Hudson seal collar. Of course I didn't want one exactly like it, just something similar.

I asked her where she got the coat. She said, "At..." then added "It was terribly expensive—$350." I was amazed because the shop she named was very exclusive and I couldn't see her paying $350 for a cloth coat.

I went to the shop and they didn't have the coat or anything like it. So I kept looking. Finally I found a rack full of exact replicas, in assorted colors, in the bargain basement of a popular department store. The price—$99.

Needless to say I did not get the coat, but I sure got her number. Any comment?—LULU

Dear Lulu: There is a possibility that your friend's coat was an original and the coats you saw were copies. So don't be so quick to condemn her.

Toy Loan Library One Of Diana Philanthropies

North Redondo Toy Loan, located at 2310 Rockefeller Lane, is one of the philanthropies sponsored by the Redondo Beach Dianas, Federated Junior Women's Club, Marina District.

Toy loan is a library of toys for boys and girls between the ages of two and 12. The toys are donated to the center and are rehabilitated, if need be, by a Los Angeles County work team.

The basic purpose of Toy Loan is to teach responsibility in the care of toys and books. Some 200 children participate in this program each month.

Mrs. Hugh Colbourne, Torrarian, is employed by the Redondo Beach Parks and Recreation Department. Mrs. Colbourne assists the children every Wednesday through Friday from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. and on Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Toys and books are checked out in a lending library and the honor system is employed. After 20 toys have been borrowed and returned undamaged, a child may "adopt" a toy, such as a doll, and keep it for her very own.

Toy Loan's present location was secured by the Dianas who have assisted in its development. Mrs. Elden Pratt, Torrance, is the Diana philanthropy chairman.

Persons interested in obtaining more information may call the Toy Loan office.
